

CCEA Presents

Joseph Stits

CCEA LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

A one-day seminar on Thursday April 26, 2018, before the CCEA State Conference in San Diego. The focus will be on the Education Code and the operation of a Continuation High School.

Presenter is Joe Stits, former Assistant Superintendent of Bellflower Unified School District, past CCEA President and Presenter of the CCEA Principals Institute.

Thursday April 26, 2018, 8:00 – 4:30 with a lunch break on your own

Cost is $250.00 paid directly to CCEA or can be included as part of your registration for the 2018 State Conference. (Check website for special deals)

TOPICS that will be covered:

1. Legal Mandates for Continuation Education includes Ed Code provisions for school management including funding, staffing and administration, student admission, facilities, data collection and program assessment, curriculum components, instructional strategies, CDE advisories.
2. Credit Earning misconceptions regarding continuation schools, the Carnegie Unit and an examination of seat time credit earning, alternatives such as competency based credit, project and or thematic based credit, and the use of educational technology as credit sources. Included will be two recent research studies of continuation education conducted by the UC Berkeley and Stanford University.
3. Attendance Accounting. You will receive a copy of the CDE approved attendance accounting manual for continuation schools. Topics will include positive attendance and compulsory attendance provisions as well as ADA calculations.

The setting is an open forum for questions and answers on any of the topics and related items. We learn best in a community and that will be the styled of the presentation and is meant for the novice as well as the veteran as we can all learn from one another.